LIFE INSURAN E .- We learn from the Circleville Herald, that Mr. II Howard, the Sheriff of Pickaway county, had in sured his life for $3,000. It will be remembered he fell's victim to the Cholera He had been insured for two years, paying each year $30, and for this small sum has secured a competency for his wife and children. The $2,000 has been promptly paid over. This miffer of Life Insurance is yet comparatively unknown and consequently not fully appreciated; but it commends itself to the judgment of prudent men. A payment of from $30 to $50 unusually will insure a very handsome amount to the family of the insured at his death.

CLOTHING AND FURNISHING EMPORIUM! WE wish to inform our old friends and customers VV that in addition to our former large assortment of furnishing Goods, we now, have added to it, one of the most extensive stock of Spring & Summer Clothing, that has ever been offered West of the Monntains. We cannot go into full particulars, nor are we willing to bribe the sickly efforts of a Porr's shadow, to give a doggeral description of our different articles. But to be candid and brief we are prepared to clothe avery Man, Youth and Hoy, of all sizes and ages, in Fairfield county, (from head to foot) full THES PER CHEAPER than those small concerns can possibly do. We dislike very much to make a blowing-horn out of a Goose Quall, by showing you a stock of Clothing on peper, and having a whole Trunk full to offer you.

What we set forth in this notice, you will find on examination to be true to the latter.
